

40 Sec Clock used

1. At the end of a running play ... at the end of the run, in bounds or out of bounds
2. At the end of a pass play, complete or incomplete
3. Team A is awarded a 1st down
4. A double change of possession and Team A regains possession

25 Sec Clock used

1. At the start of a period or overtime
2. Following a score and prior to the PAT, or free kick
3. Following a touchback
4. Following a legal kick
5. Following a penalty assessment and or enforcement
6. Following a change of possession and team B snaps
7. Following a charged timeout by either team or media timeout
8. Following an official's timeout for a measurement
9. Following an official's time out for: an injury, helmet coming off, legal equipment missing or being worn illegally, or other unusual need for an official's timeout (inadvertent whistle, period extension)

If you are checking for a first down (or if it is CLOSE) stop the clock and check and use 25sec play clock

40 Sec Clock used

1. At the end of a running play ... at the end of the run, in bounds or out of bounds
2. At the end of a pass play, complete or incomplete
3. Team A is awarded a 1st down
4. A double change of possession and Team A regains possession

25 Sec Clock used

1. At the start of a period or overtime
2. Following a score and prior to the PAT, or free kick
3. Following a touchback
4. Following a legal kick
5. Following a penalty assessment and or enforcement
6. Following a change of possession and team B snaps
7. Following a charged timeout by either team or media timeout
8. Following an official's timeout for a measurement
9. Following an official's time out for: an injury, helmet coming off, legal equipment missing or being worn illegally, or other unusual need for an official's timeout (inadvertent whistle, period extension)

If you are checking for a first down (or if it is CLOSE) stop the clock and check and use 25sec play clock

40 Sec Clock used

1. At the end of a running play ... at the end of the run, in bounds or out of bounds
2. At the end of a pass play, complete or incomplete
3. Team A is awarded a 1st down
4. A double change of possession and Team A regains possession

25 Sec Clock used

1. At the start of a period or overtime
2. Following a score and prior to the PAT, or free kick
3. Following a touchback
4. Following a legal kick
5. Following a penalty assessment and or enforcement
6. Following a change of possession and team B snaps
7. Following a charged timeout by either team or media timeout
8. Following an official's timeout for a measurement
9. Following an official's time out for: an injury, helmet coming off, legal equipment missing or being worn illegally, or other unusual need for an official's timeout (inadvertent whistle, period extension)

If you are checking for a first down (or if it is CLOSE) stop the clock and check and use 25sec play clock

40 Sec Clock used

1. At the end of a running play ... at the end of the run, in bounds or out of bounds
2. At the end of a pass play, complete or incomplete
3. Team A is awarded a 1st down
4. A double change of possession and Team A regains possession

25 Sec Clock used

1. At the start of a period or overtime
2. Following a score and prior to the PAT, or free kick
3. Following a touchback
4. Following a legal kick
5. Following a penalty assessment and or enforcement
6. Following a change of possession and team B snaps
7. Following a charged timeout by either team or media timeout
8. Following an official's timeout for a measurement
9. Following an official's time out for: an injury, helmet coming off, legal equipment missing or being worn illegally, or other unusual need for an official's timeout (inadvertent whistle, period extension)

If you are checking for a first down (or if it is CLOSE) stop the clock and check and use 25sec play clock

40 Sec Clock used

1. At the end of a running play ... at the end of the run, in bounds or out of bounds
2. At the end of a pass play, complete or incomplete
3. Team A is awarded a 1st down
4. A double change of possession and Team A regains possession

25 Sec Clock used

1. At the start of a period or overtime
2. Following a score and prior to the PAT, or free kick
3. Following a touchback
4. Following a legal kick
5. Following a penalty assessment and or enforcement
6. Following a change of possession and team B snaps
7. Following a charged timeout by either team or media timeout
8. Following an official's timeout for a measurement
9. Following an official's time out for: an injury, helmet coming off, legal equipment missing or being worn illegally, or other unusual need for an official's timeout (inadvertent whistle, period extension)

If you are checking for a first down (or if it is CLOSE) stop the clock and check and use 25sec play clock

40 Sec Clock used

1. At the end of a running play ... at the end of the run, in bounds or out of bounds
2. At the end of a pass play, complete or incomplete
3. Team A is awarded a 1st down
4. A double change of possession and Team A regains possession

25 Sec Clock used

1. At the start of a period or overtime
2. Following a score and prior to the PAT, or free kick
3. Following a touchback
4. Following a legal kick
5. Following a penalty assessment and or enforcement
6. Following a change of possession and team B snaps
7. Following a charged timeout by either team or media timeout
8. Following an official's timeout for a measurement
9. Following an official's time out for: an injury, helmet coming off, legal equipment missing or being worn illegally, or other unusual need for an official's timeout (inadvertent whistle, period extension)

If you are checking for a first down (or if it is CLOSE) stop the clock and check and use 25sec play clock